Convention of Christian Endeavor Societies at Minneapolis.

A REMARKABLE ANNUAL REPORT.

The Societies Increasing at a Phenomenal Rate—Father Clark's Movement Likely to Become an Event in Religious History.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 10.—The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor convention was formally called to order shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Dr. Clark. Rev. Dr. Vassar, of Kansas City, formally opened the convention with prayer. There was a preliminary service of prayer and music, and then Frank B. Daniels, chairman of the local committee, made the opening address of welcome.

Rev. H. H. French, D. D., of Centenary Methodist church, followed on behalf of the Minneapolis pastors. "Minneapolis," he said, "had a church to 1,000 persons. All of these joined in a hearty welcome." He thanked God for planting in all the churches a society where no one was asked whether he was a Calvinist or Arminian, high church or low, whether he sprinkled or immersed, whether he was in the settled ministry or the itinerant, but where the love of Christ was the supreme test of fellowship, and deeds, not creeds, were praised.

Rev. Dr. Robert Christie, D. D., of the House of Hope (Presbyterian) welcomed the convention in behalf of the pastors of St. Paul. Of the many conventions which the twin cities had had the honor to entertain, he considered this, in its composition, magnitude, its aims and its possibilities, as of overshadowing importance.

The evening session was begun with a half hour praise service by the Twin City Christian Endeavor chorus. Rev. D. R. Tiffany presided and began the formal service by having the twenty-third Psalm repeated by the audience of 12,000.

After singing, the annual report of General Secretary J. W. Baer, of Boston, was read. It stated that one year ago the membership records showed 11,013 societies—an increase over the previous year of 3,341 societies. There were now 16,274 societies. Three hundred and seven societies were supported from across the water. There were others from whom the society have not heard. England has 128 societies; Austria, 28; Turkey 12 and China 7. The five leading Canadian provinces reported as follows: Ontario 458 societies, Nova Scotia 156, Quebec 63, New Brunswick 36 and British Columbia 25. The five leading society states were: New York 2,354 societies, Pennsylvania 1,463, Ohio 1,061, Illinois 1,043 and Massachusetts 918. A number of other states were close behind.

The banner for the state, territory or province showing the largest percentage of gain was awarded to the territory of Oklahoma. British Columbia second, Nova Scotia third, Virginia a close fourth, and Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi, with the same ratio, fifth. Another banner was decided on last year for the greatest aggregate gain and Pennsylvania, having a gain of 645 local societies, would hold that banner for one year. New York was second with 559, Iowa had increased her list 282, Ohio 390, Arkansas 277. Kansas reported more gain than the entire membership the first five years. Town, city and district unions had been formed with much benefit. Philadelphia had a union of 182 societies, Chicago 160, New York city 80, St. Louis 67, Brooklyn 65. There were four floating societies on men-of-war. Great growth was reported in the junior organization of which fifty-five societies were reported. Illinois led with 122. Among the denomination the Presbyterians had 4,195 Christian Endeavor societies; Congregationalists, 3,543; Baptists, 2,381, Methodists, 2,060, and Christian (Disciples) 801. As to the individual members the growth was marvelous. In Philadelphia in 1888, 31,000 members reported; at Chicago, 1889, 485,000; at St. Louis last year 600,000, and now the 16,274 local societies had 1,008,980 members. No money was collected from the societies, all the expenses being paid by the sale of Bibles, literature and printing for local societies. The Golden Rule, the paper of the society, was heartily commended. It was known that 282,000 members of the society had become church members within the year. He closed with an appeal for greater Christian endeavor.

Ira D. Sankey, the famous evangelist, then sang: "Throw Out the Life Line."

The introduction of President Clark, Dr. Tiffany spoke of as "Father Endeavor" Clark, was the signal for a quick waving of handkerchiefs that showed how dear he was to all the members of the societies. For his annual address he had chosen the topic "Fidelity and Fellowship."

General Secretary Baer read a number of telegrams, among others one from Bishop Vincent regretting his inability to be present on account of his bronchitis. He said Bishop Vincent told him in Chicago yesterday that had he been a Congregationalist or a Presbyterian he would not have started, but being a Methodist he thought he should try to come.

Mr. Lorenzo F. Sleeper is very well known to the citizens of Appleton, Me., and neighborhood. He says: "Eight years ago I was taken 'sick,' and suffered as no one but a 'dyspeptic' can.
